DON'T FORGET THE NEW ISAM SEMINAR !!!

ISAM 2017 Fundamentals

Title: HOW TO TRANSFER OUR KNOWLEDGE ON ADDICTION MEDICINE TO THE NEXT GENERATION?

Subtitle: A seminar on teaching addiction medicine at under- and postgraduate level

Moderators and organisers:

Barbara Broers

Cornelius De Jong

Working group: Alex Baldacchino, Mary Janssen van Raay, Barbara Broers, Cor de Jong, Anju Dhawan, Sue Galea

DESCRIPTION: In our era we have competent physicians and healthcare workers in addiction medicine. The next step is that we need to transfer our knowledge to our colleagues and the next generation. Training in this field is often lacunar and patchy at under- and postgraduate level.

This 1 day fundamentals course will address conceptual and organisational aspects of addiction curricula, provide practical tools for preparing educational and evaluation material, and discuss and experiment different teaching methods.

The latter will include use of existing training material, assessing training needs, e-learning, portfolio development, inter-professional training, preparing teaching material and exams, identifying Entrustable Professional Activities (EPA's), how to provide clinical feedback, etc. (See Table 1 and 2 for details of topics)

AUDIENCE: The interactive course is developed for clinicians, teachers and policy makers from different disciplines who are interested in medical education and who want to improve addiction medicine training in their clinic, their university or at a governmental level. Please note some preparatory work is expected to be done before the training starts. This means that this one day Fundamental course is highly relevant for all addiction medicine specialists and scientists who want to transfer their knowledge to the next generation, and for those who are already doing this and want to improve their skills in teaching.

Date and venue: October 29th, 2017

Cost: $200 per participant.

Organisation: ISAM Education and Training Committee

Number of participants: maximum 30

Abstracts of the 18th Annual Meeting of the International Society of Addiction Medicine \(ISAM\)—2016

It is a pleasure to write about one major feature of our Society's medical-scientific mission, namely our role in sponsorship of the journal, Substance Abuse. This peer-reviewed publication is a leading resource for research findings in our field, with a high impact factor (2.52), reflecting its important role in this capacity. The Journal's articles are available in full text as a benefit for our ISAM individual members, and a list of articles in the most recent issue is given below. The Journal also makes available the top 50 scientific abstracts from our annual conferences, after each meeting.
